

Every young athlete
has a dream

A clearer path to their goals

MORE ATHLETE

So many people trying to help

Coach. Parent. Trainer. Teacher.

How does the athlete know what matters next?

Three things can help

The background image is a composite of three scenes from a soccer field at sunset. On the left, a young man with curly hair looks upwards with a hopeful expression. In the center, a soccer player in a dark kit is in motion, about to kick a ball. On the right, a man and a woman are sitting on a bench, looking at a tablet together. The sunset sky is a mix of orange, yellow, and dark blue, with silhouettes of trees and a goal in the distance.

Understand who they are

Know what they want

Have a guide
for the next step

What if we could give them all three?

That is what MORE ATHLETE is built to do.

MORE, YOUR AI GUIDE

First, understand the person

Mika watches before speaking.
That does not mean Mika lacks ambition.

What matters Teamwork, honest people and a life beyond sport.

What helps A clear question and a manageable next step.

What gets hard Pressure can mean saying too little or too much.

Then make the goal clear

Mika wants to read the field earlier and say one useful thing.

SPORT

What do I want to do better?

TRAINING

What would make practice more useful?

MINDSET

How do I want to respond under pressure?
